

WOODLEY REVIVAL

Agenda

In this live project we will partner with Institute of Place Management, to design and develop a community vision for Woodley, a district centre in Stockport, Greater Manchester. An Urban Insertion with the aim of broadening social productivity and community involvement. This project will allow you to explore & develop principles on an Urban Scale understanding the surroundings through research and developing a masterplan. You will produce design proposals for a series of unique spaces within the site, creating illustrative visuals, graphics, sketches and drawings. The project provides an opportunity to express creative & artistic ideas along with analytical research in an exciting and locally valued site.
