AGENDA:

MMU Poetry Library are a collaborative space which boasts a large collection of English poetry, as well as accommodating much more: their children's poetry collection is ever growing and includes many languages and poets from all around the world.

The library also encourages zine-making as a tool for expression: they provide all materials but need a permanent space for this process, suited for children. Join us in creating a piece of furniture and decor that allows children to engage with zine-making and the library's expansive collection for inspiration!
